

Quaker Service, a Friends charity seeking to serve the most vulnerable and isolated in Northern Ireland.

Quaker Service serves the people that our society has often chosen to forget. Most know nothing of the Society of Friends, but experience 'Quakers' as a lifeline, a place of safety, the chance for a fresh start.

The areas of Belfast where Quaker Service works still suffer paramilitary violence, division and extreme poverty – but the 'Quakers' are known and trusted here after decades of painstaking service and love for those most in need on all sides of the community.

We would really value the opportunity to keep you up to date on our work and be able to consider you 'a Friend of Quaker Service'. On the reverse of this page, you can find a form that allows you to do this.
